

Report of Lecture Session on

Human Trafficking in the Context of COVID-19

Organised

by the department of Political Science, Lakhimpur Girls' College in association with IQAC
Lakhimpur Girls' College, Lakhimpur

An Online Lecture session (as Lecture-6) was organized today on 29th June 2020 at 02.00 PM by the department of Political Science, Lakhimpur Girls' College in association with IQAC Lakhimpur Girls' College, Lakhimpur. The theme of the Programme was 'Human Trafficking in the Context of COVID-19'. Ms Padmini Brahma, a renowned Social Activist of BTC, Assam graced the event as an appointed speaker. The programme was inaugurated by Dr. Surajit Bhuyan, Principal of Lakhimpur Girls' College, and Dr Kalidash Brahma, Assistant Professor of the department of Political Science was Programme Coordinator. Ms. Brahma spoke about the issue of human trafficking in Assam. While speaking about the issue, she discussed in length the trauma of the victims and their rehabilitation. According to her, the issue of human trafficking has increased during pandemic and their rehabilitation has become more and more complex. About 180-190 participants including Professors, academicians, scholars and students from all across the country joined the programme. Few questions were picked up for interactions. The programme came to an end with a vote of thanks by Dr. Subhanjali Prasad Das, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science.

Dr. Kalidash Brahma
HoD
Political Science

HEAD
DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE
LAKHIMPUR GIRLS COLLEGE
NORTH LAKHIMPUR