Social media gives everyone a space of own to share almost everything to the world. In this connection there is always a debate on Use and Abuse of social media in now and then. History is a systematic study of the past. It is a discipline of facts. But, the users of social media shares everything they received and believed accordingly without experimenting the authenticity of the shared information. In this regard, Sahitya Chora of Lakhimpur Girls’ College organised a one-day webinar on “Distorted History, Social Media and Contemporary Society” on 1st August, 2020 at 3:00 PM. Prof. Rajib Handique, Prof. & Head, Deptt. Of History, Gauhati University, Guwahati was the Resource Person of the webinar. Principal of the college, Dr. Surajit Bhuyan welcomed the Resource Person and all the participants. Prof. Handique delivered a thought provoking and scholarly talk on the study of History, research and its methodology in History. In his talk, Prof. Handique expressed that History should be written by the historians and it should not be distorted or misinterpreted to fulfil anyone’s ill motive. He emphasised on doing research on Regional History. Almost 400 participants from different parts of the nation had a lively interactive session with the ‘Forest Man’.

Mr. Nipon Panging delivered the vote of thanks.

The Webinar has received lots of feedback from the participants.

E-Certificates were issued to all those who have submitted their feedback form during the stipulated time.

Organisers of the webinar will always remain grateful to the resource person and all the participants for making the webinar a success.

Thank you
