

A report about the National Webinar on “Professional Ethics”

On the 2nd of April 2022, a National Webinar was held, which was organized by the Department of Philosophy in collaboration with IQAC, Lakhimpur Girls’ College. Mr. Jatin Buragohain was the invited resource person. He is a Guest Faculty at KKHSOU, Guwahati. The prime objective of the meeting was to get an insight on the conception of Professional Ethics. There were around 110 participants along with esteemed guests.

The meeting began with a cordial welcoming of all the solicited guests and participants by the host Mr. Macduff Sonowal. The H.O.D of Philosophy, LGC Mrs. Tulumoni Baruah addressed the meeting with a welcome speech followed by the principal of the college Dr. Surajit Bhuyan who welcomed Mr. Jatin Buragohain and inaugurated the Webinar.

The discourse was carried flawlessly by Mr. Jatin Buragohain who ignited all the participants on the origin, nature, scope, and relevance of Professional Ethics in the present context. The discourse encompassed major dimensions of various subjects which are inter-connected to Professional or Practical Ethics.

An interactive session took place towards the end of the discourse. The queries of the participants were seamlessly synthesized from both ends. The meeting was summarized with a vote of thanks by the Lecture Coordinator of the Webinar Mr. Macduff Sonowal.

Outcome:

The Webinar highlighted the general aspects of the conception of Professional Ethics. Participants were cognized by the illumined thoughts of the Resource person, proven by the fact that everyone appraised his discourse through the feedback provided by the organizing committee. The session covered the realm of humanities and natural science in correspondence to Professional Ethics. The Webinar served as a prelude to the forthcoming ADD-ON course on Practical Ethics offered by the Department of Philosophy, LGC.

Date and time of the National Webinar: 02-04-2022 at 7:00 pm

Topic: Professional Ethics

Resource Person: Mr. Jatin Buragohain

Mode of the discourse: Zoom

Organizer: Department of Philosophy in collaboration with IQAC, LGC

Lecture Coordinator: Mr. Macduff Sonowal

